RE: Annual Review of Base Rates for Fuel Costs for Dominion Energy South Carolina, Incorporated (For Potential Increase or Decrease in Fuel Adjustment or Gas Adjustment)

Docket No.: 2022-2-E

Dear Ms. Boyd:

The South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff ("ORS") respectfully submits this letter in response to the October 13, 2021 Prefile Testimony Letter issued by the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("Commission"), which requested that parties, by March 24, 2022, provide the order of Witnesses to be presented during the hearing, whether there is an objection to taking direct and rebuttal or surrebuttal testimony together during the hearing, and whether or not there is a desire to use Panels of Witnesses. ORS respectfully requests that it be permitted to appear in-person for the hearing, which is scheduled to commence on April 7, 2022, and that it be allowed to present its witnesses in-person as a panel. ORS plans to call its witnesses in the following order, if permitted to appear in-person and present a panel:

1. Anthony D. Briseno and Gretchen Pool (In-Person Panel); and
2. Michael L. Seaman-Huynh and Brandon S. Bickley (In-Person Panel).

With this letter, ORS hereby notifies the Commission and all parties of record that ORS does not intend to file surrebuttal testimony in the above-referenced docket. However, ORS reserves the right to file surrebuttal testimony should evidence or facts materialize and warrant further response.

ORS reserves the right to amend the order of its witnesses and will update the Commission if a change to the order of its witnesses is made. ORS does not object to taking direct and rebuttal or surrebuttal testimony together during the hearing but reserves the right to request to present its direct and surrebuttal testimony (if applicable) separately if another party requests to separate its direct and rebuttal or surrebuttal.

Thank you for your consideration of and attention to this matter. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

s. Nicole M. Hair
